Beauty Essentials

Want to step off the plane looking runway-ready? Fill your carry-on luggage with these necessities and say au revoir to blotchy skin, dry lips and bad hair.

RETRACTABLE CURLING IRON Sometimes being hot stuff isn't such a good thing, especially when there's a taxi waiting and an airplane to catch. The barrel of Revlon's retractable curling iron can retract while still hot, making it perfectly portable and ideal for travel. At London Drugs (page 30).

ANTI-SHINE FOUNDATION STICK For a make-up base that never looks caked on or greasy, try Maybelline's Fit Me foundation stick. The gel foundation gives a matte finish, while powders in the anti-shine core dissolve excess oil, and 12 shades guarantee a match for every skin tone. At London Drugs (page 30).

MOISTURIZING LIP BALM Bet you can't buy just one: Baby Lips from Maybelline come in an assortment of fun colours and scents. Each one makes lips softer and plumper, delivering moisture without grease. Try one for yourself and you'll see why so many beauty editors are fans—and collectors. Pucker up! At London Drugs (page 30).

BLUSH PAPERS If you've ever tried to scoop broken blush out of the deepest, darkest corners of a handbag, you'll instantly see the genius of Mai Couture Uptown Blush Papers. A single sheet is enough to give a natural-looking hue (with a slight shimmer) to both cheeks. At Murale (page 26).

8-IN-1 BEAUTY BALM SKIN PERFECTOR It brightens, smooths and hydrates. It evens skin tone, blurs imperfections and protects with SPF 30. Is there anything Maybelline's Dream Fresh beauty balm can't do? Well, it can't do anything about the state of airline food, but it sure can enhance skin, using no oils or heavy ingredients. At London Drugs (page 30).
