

A Shoo-In

These boots were made for walking. In truth, Dayton Boots (page 18) were made for logging, back in 1946, but now they're worn for everything from weddings to motorcycle riding. And each pair is still hand-constructed in Vancouver, using age-old techniques and machinery. 🐾

