

Gorgeous Gifts

Give a special someone (or even yourself—we won't tell) a little pampering this holiday season.

To achieve livelier locks, the BC Bonacure Color Freeze Duo from Schwarzkopf Professional contains a shampoo that restores shine to over-processed hair, along with a conditioner that seals and protects the hair's cuticle layers. At Chatters (page 61).

Packaged in an adorable three-tiered cake tin, the Triple Decker Decadence set from Benefit contains a lip-and-cheek stain, volumizing mascara, brow-highlighting pencil and face primer. At Sephora (page 61).

Give the gift of healthy, hydrated skin with the Nourishing Olive Oil Skincare Trio from Korres. It features a day cream, night cream and exfoliating scrub, all infused with the oil and cold-pressed leaf extract of olive trees. At Shoppers (page 61).

The Radiant: Good For You Complexion Collection includes everything you need for healthy-looking skin: loose-powder foundation, concealer, finishing powder and more. And because Nude by Nature made the kit, it contains no synthetics or preservatives. At Shoppers (page 61).

Dry, cracked hands? No thanks. The Hand Cream Duo from Paul & Joe contains a Silky Hand Cream and a Moisturizing Hand Cream, both designed to keep hands soft and smooth—and both in travel-friendly sizes. At Shoppers (page 61).
