From Farm to Face

Superfoods such as Manuka honey are good for more than just healthy eating—they're also wonderful for putting on your skin. Toronto's Graydon Moffat began creating natural skincare products in her kitchen. Now she uses a high-tech lab, but the ingredients are still plant-based, nutrient-rich, and both organic and made in Canada as much as possible. The travel kit packs five of the brand's most popular items into carry-on-friendly sizes: All Over Soap, Hair Smoothie, All Over Face + Body Lotion, Face Food Mineral Mist and Germs Away Mist.
