

U2

OCTOBER 28

"With or Without You." "I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For." "Desire." "Angel of Harlem." "Sunday Bloody Sunday." A music lover could spend all day listing hit songs by these Dublin boys, who came in at #22 on Rolling Stone magazine's list of the greatest rock bands of all time. Good luck snagging a ticket to their sold-out concert at BC Place Stadium (page 52).

BLUE MAN GROUP

OCTOBER 3

It sounds like a riddle, but fans already know the answer: what's hypnotic and hilarious and blue all over? Catch this unforgettable show at UBC Thunderbird Arena (page 49).

The Wiggles

OCTOBER 9

The biggest thing to come out of Australia isn't AC/DC or Keith Urban or even Russell Crowe. Parents know it's The Wiggles. The family-friendly entertainers are a world-wide phenomenon, regularly selling out venues such as Madison Square Garden. Sing along to favourites such as "Hot Potato" and "Monkey Man" when the group wiggles into UBC Thunderbird Arena (page 53).

LIVE ON STAGE

In Mom's the Word: Remixed (pictured), moms share tales of the terrible twos and the terrifying teens, at the Granville Island Stage (to Nov. 7; page 55). A blown fuse leads to comic mayhem in Black Comedy, at the Stanley Industrial Alliance Stage (to Oct. 11; page 54). Helen Keller's story comes to life in The Miracle Worker, at the Vancouver Playhouse (Oct. 10 to 31; page 55).
