

Cool Cosplay

Calling all fanboys and fangirls: want to meet Captain Kirk and Princess Leia? You're in luck, because William Shatner and Carrie Fisher are on the roster of the fourth annual Fan Expo Vancouver (page 46), along with Brent Spiner (Star Trek: The Next Generation), Shannen Doherty (Beverly Hills, 90210), Lance Henriksen (Aliens; Millennium) and a trio of Walking Dead cast members: Chad Coleman, Scott Wilson and Sarah Wayne Callies. See them all—and a host of other pop-culture legends—Apr. 3 to 5 at the Vancouver Convention Centre.

On With the Show

Those aren't just rumours. Fleetwood Mac (page 47) is returning to Vancouver, bringing the full line-up of Mick Fleetwood, Lindsey Buckingham, John McVie, Christine McVie and Stevie Nicks to perform timeless hits such as "Dreams," "Go Your Own Way" and "You Make Loving Fun." Catch the On With the Show tour Apr. 4 at Rogers Arena.

PROUD

Not all politicians are skilled (or lucky) enough to win a second term in office. Proud (Apr. 7 to 25; page 49), however, has earned its second run at the Firehall Arts Centre after being a runaway hit there last year. Focusing on Prime Minister Stephen Harper, the play reimagines the outcome of the last federal election—with hilarious results. O Canada indeed!
