All Jazzed Up

Sweet sounds fill the city Jun. 22 to Jul. 1, during the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival (page 36). The fest has been going strong for more than a quarter of a century, attracting musical luminaries such as George Benson (Jun. 23), Janelle Monáe (Jun. 29) and Wayne Shorter (Jun. 26). For some jazzy family festivities, head downtown Jun. 23 and 24 to the arts and music village taking over Robson Square and the grounds of the Vancouver Art Gallery; three performance stages, a community fair and dance classes are just a few of the activities planned for this weekend of free fun.

Pure Bliss

The Vancouver Aquarium is already home to 50,000 creatures, but there's always room for an extra downward-facing dog or one-legged king pigeon. On World Oceans Day (Jun. 8), join renowned yogi, blissologist and ocean lover Eoin Finn for Yoga with Belugas (page 37) in the whales' underwater viewing area.
