

Under the Big Top

Quebec's Robert Lepage has spent his career pushing the boundaries of live theatre. Now the award-winning multidisciplinary artist has teamed up with Quebec's equally ground-breaking Cirque du Soleil (page 62) to write and direct Totem. This new show uses comedy, music, surprising visual effects and jaw-dropping acrobatics to trace humankind's journey. Catch all the circus wizardry May 15 to Jun. 29.

Skate Date

The Sochi 2014 Olympic Winter Games may be just a distant memory, but you can recapture some of the spirit at the Investors Group Stars on Ice presented by Lindt (page 66). Silver medallists Tessa Virtue and Scott Moir (pictured) and Patrick Chan headline an impressive roster of Canada's best skaters that also includes Kurt Browning, Joannie Rochette and Jeffrey Buttle. It's ice ice baby, May 15 at Rogers Arena.

"COUNTRY MAN"

What do you get when you mix over-the-top musical talent with movie-star good looks, then add in a dash of goofy charm? Luke Bryan, who brings his That's My Kind of Night Tour to town May 3 (Rogers Arena; page 64). Last year's Academy of Country Music Entertainer of the Year is promoting his latest album, Crash My Party, and its chart-topping singles "That's My Kind of Night," "Drink a Beer" and "Play It Again." Consider it a little taste of Nashville, right here in Vancouver.
