

Extreme Dinosaurs

Nineteen dinosaurs gnash their teeth, stomp and roar. Time travelling? No, it's the Extreme Dinosaurs exhibit at Science World at Telus World of Science (to Apr. 1; page 62), which includes life-sized animatronics of some strange (but wonderful) creatures.

Beautiful Ballet

The National Ballet of Canada has, for six decades, been touring the world, staging both classical and contemporary ballets. This month, the troupe presents three Vancouver premieres: The Second Detail, choreographed by William Forsythe; The Man in Black, by James Kudelka; and Emergence, by Canada's own Crystal Pite. Catch these dazzling shows at the Queen Elizabeth Theatre (Sep. 23 to 25; page 61).

Vancouver International Film Festival

For 30 years, cineastes have been flocking to this annual fest (page 58) for a smorgasbord of films such as Flamenco, Flamenco (pictured) out of Spain, Rolf Harris Paints His Dream (UK), The Co(te)lette Film (Belgium), The Singing City (Germany) and Michel Petruccianni (France). This cinematic feast of more than 350 films from 80 countries has something to suit every taste.
