

Keeping Tradition Alive

Leather work may be a dying art, but you wouldn't know it from the gorgeous moccasins (pictured), belts, wallets and key chains handmade by Ken Diamond in his Vancouver studio. He uses only high-quality leather and classic designs to create his timeless pieces. Find them at The Block (page 18) and Sharks and Hammers (page 20), or shop online at www.kendiamond.com.

Pucker Up

Is it a lip colour or a hydrating balm? The new Hydra Kiss colour balm from Montreal company Lise Watier (www.lisewatier.com) feels like a lip balm going on but also adds a touch of shine and colour, making lips perfectly kissable. Choose from Coral Paradise (pictured) or Rose Eden at Shoppers Drug Mart (page 18), London Drugs (page 18) or The Bay (page 17).

COUNT ON IT

Brush up on your Roman numerals with the new additions to Tiffany & Co.'s (page 22) Atlas collection. Beautiful bangles, cuffs (pictured), pendants and rings sparkle in sterling silver or yellow, white or rose gold. That's I for you, II for a friend, III for a relative, maybe IV for you again... but who's counting?

FOR WEE ONES

IBIZA BEACH TOTE

Tiny tots can carry their own sunscreen and snacks in a personalized mini tote sporting animal designs such as a flamingo (pictured), elephant or shark. Find matching beach towels and wraps, too. At Pottery Barn Kids (page 16).

REUSABLE SANDWICH BAGS

LunchSkins add a dash of panache to packed lunches. Made from cotton, these eco-friendly sandwich bags dry quickly after going through the dishwasher. At Crate & Barrel (page 20).

ECO-FRIENDLY CLOTHING

Stylish moms already wear the chic clothes crafted from sustainable, ethical fabrics at Nicole Bridger (page 19). Now their daughters can get in on all the fashion fun with the recent launch of Little B. This made-in-Vancouver line of cute and comfy—yet durable and affordable—dresses and leggings fits pint-sized fashionistas from six months up to size four.

A SHOO-IN

Treat your tootsies to a pair of cool kicks unlike any others in the whole wide world. At downtown's Zelen Shoes (page 20), you can pick out the perfect pair of Chuck Taylors, Vans or Zelen shoes, then customize them with your own design—anything from a simple doodle to an intricate photo—for a $40 surcharge. The turnaround time is usually less than a day, making it quick and easy to put your best foot forward.
