

Happy Campers

The next time the kids beg to go camping, avoid all the mess and fuss by setting up an indoor tent from Domestic Objects. Started by a Vancouver mother who wanted to encourage imaginative play, the brand makes fabric tents that are either self-contained or designed to fit over a bed mattress. There's even a smaller, pet-sized tent for Fido or Fluffy. Camping simply doesn't get any easier than this. Buy online at www.shopdomesticobjects.com.

Banish Bounce

Gals with a little extra on top know the frustration of trying to find a supportive sports bra that looks nice, too. Just in time for running season, the new Speed Up Bra from Lululemon (page 90) offers support for C/D cups and a chafe-free fit, all in a pretty package. Made from sweat-wicking Luxtreme fabric, this comfy bra has moulded foam cups in the front and a mesh fabric panel for ventilation in the back. All that's missing is a gold medal—but it's waiting for you at the finish line.

La Dolce Vita

Elizabeth Taylor, Ingrid Bergman, Sofia Loren—it takes a big personality to wear one of Bulgari's truly striking pieces. Founded in Rome in 1884, the beloved jewellery brand recently opened a boutique in Vancouver. Tucked away inside Holt Renfrew (page 86), the shop is filled with all the bold and beautiful baubles you could wish for. Bellissima!
