

Pull on a pair of Original Play Short Rain Boots by Hunter, then give in to temptation and splash through every mud puddle you see. At Little Burgundy (page 23).

Spring styles by Ted Baker London (page 21) are sweet and sassy at the same time.

★ All-natural mists by Woodlot contain floral hydrosols, botanical extracts and essential oils. To achieve botanical bliss, spray one on a pillow or into the air, then breathe deeply and relax. At Walrus (page 24).

Keep that little bouncing bundle of joy dry from April showers with a High Performance Rain Cover for your Bugaboo stroller. At West Coast Kids (page 22).

★ Handcrafted from 14K gold on sterling silver, the hummingbird talisman from Pyrrha symbolizes lightness and joy. Find Pyrrha jewellery at Blue Ruby (page 25) or online at www.pyrrha.com.

★ Put your best foot forward in new kicks from Native Shoes (page 23). Each pair is vegan and lightweight, too.

Tiny tots cultivate their green thumbs with cute-as-a-bug's-ear gardening gear from Indigo (page 21).

Spring Has Sprung

'Tis the season for a spring shopping spree

BY SHERI RADFORD

Concoct your own perfect blend with the Tea Apothecary Kit from DavidsTea (page 70). Choose one of the four wellness teas, mix with one of the four booster ingredients, then sip your way to health and tranquility.

★ Twice as nice: the Atom SL Hoody by Arc'teryx (page 26) does double duty as a lightweight layering piece in cooler weather and a standalone jacket on warmer days.

★ VANCOUVER BRANDS

★ A fun floral backpack by Herschel (page 26) is just begging to be filled with all the fixings for a picnic in Stanley Park.

★ Chloë Angus (page 19) has long been an icon on the local fashion scene. Her cheerful new designs for spring provide welcome pops of colour.