

ACTION ON ICE: CATCH THE CANUCKS AT GM PLACE

HOT TIPS THIS MONTH

Where to go, what to do:
the don't-miss list By Sheri Radford

(L) YUK IT UP: DON RICKLES BRINGS ON THE LAUGHS. (R) MOVE IT: PERFORMERS IN STOMP MAKE RHYTHM HAPPEN

to Dr. Phil (Apr. 29, Orpheum Theatre; page 80). Don Rickles made his first appearance on The Tonight Show in 1965, but his unique brand of insult comedy is still a TV favourite today (Apr. 6, Red Robinson Show Theatre; and Apr. 7, River Rock Show Theatre; page 80).

BELLY LAUGHS

Some old-time comedians are getting new laughs this month. The Smothers Brothers have been in the yuks biz for almost half a century, but the duo's timeless comedy never goes out of style (Apr. 14, Red Robinson Show Theatre; page 80). The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra backs up Rich Little and his repertoire of more than 200 voices—ranging from Richard Nixon to John Wayne

LOVE STORIES

Could there be a better backdrop for a Canadian romance than a hockey arena? A couple of single parents score true love in Hockey Mom, Hockey Dad (to Apr. 21, Arts Club Granville Island Stage; page 78). When an elderly couple falls in love in a seniors' home, their children face the difficult task of deciding their fate, in Half Life (to Apr. 8, Stanley Theatre; page 78).

HE SHOOTS, HE SCORES: TRUE LOVE IS THE GOAL IN HOCKEY MOM, HOCKEY DAD

PHOTOS: (TOP) BY JEFF VINNICK COURTESY OF THE VANCOUVER CANUCKS. (L) BY TIM MATHESON

STAGE STRUCK

Local stages are blessed with a plethora of choices this month. Ballet BC presents Legends of

MOVING TALE: CAROLINE CAVE STARS IN THE SYRINGA TREE

20th Century Dance, three works choreographed by a trio of talents: George Balanchine, Martha Graham and Twyla Tharp (Apr. 12 to 14, Queen Elizabeth Theatre; page 80). Vancouver Opera stages Tosca, Puccini's classic tale of love and betrayal (Apr. 21, 24, 26, 28, May 1, Queen Elizabeth Theatre; page 78). Caroline Cave won a Jessie Award the first time she played all 24 characters in The Syringa Tree. Now she's back for an encore run of the moving story set in apartheid South Africa (to Apr. 21, Vancouver Playhouse; page 78).

THE SPORTING LIFE

Ski season is coming to an end, and the Telus World Ski and Snowboard Festival at Whistler ensures it all finishes with a bang, with 10 days of concerts, movies, winter sports and more (Apr. 13 to 22; page 77). Hockey season is also winding down, but there's still time to catch a couple of Vancouver Canucks home games (see schedule, page 80). As soccer season kicks off, the Vancouver Whitecaps men's team plays a few games on home turf (see schedule, page 80). If you'd like to flex your own muscles after a long winter's hibernation, join 50,000 other sprinters, joggers and walkers in the Vancouver Sun Run, Canada's largest 10K run (Apr. 15; page 77).

SMOOTH MOVES

Night of the Sultans blends ballet, modern dance and acrobatics with influences from Asia, in a magical retelling of Pandora's legend (Apr. 12 to 15,

TOP POP

1. Dr. Hook Irreverent pop/rock with country flavour (Apr. 13, Red Robinson Show Theatre; page 77).

2. Kenny Rogers Country hits with a hint of pop (Apr. 6, River Rock Show Theatre; and Apr. 7, Red Robinson Show Theatre; page 78).

Kenny Rogers

17, 18, 20 to 22, River Rock Show Theatre; and Apr. 24 to 29, Red Robinson Show Theatre; page 77). In Stomp, the performers create compelling rhythms out of anything and everything, from lighters and brooms to plungers and hubcaps (Apr. 17 to 22, The Centre in Vancouver for Performing Arts; page 77).

Ray Sawyer of Dr. Hook

3. The Beach Boys Sixties surf pop (Apr. 20 and 21, Red Robinson Show Theatre; page 77).

4. Engelbert Humperdinck Romantic pop (Apr. 27 and 28, River Rock Show Theatre; page 77).

5. John Mayer Super groovy pop and blues (May 1, Pacific Coliseum; page 78).