

STAND-UP GUYS

and 10, River Rock Show Theatre; page 71).

◆ Maestro Bramwell Tovey leads the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra in two evenings of light

SMOOTH MOVES: THE BELLYDANCE SUPERSTARS

romantic classics, just in time for Valentine's Day (Feb. 9 and 10, Orpheum Theatre; page 72).

COOL COSTUMES

The Bellydance Superstars make a splash wherever they go, in luxurious, colourful outfits that are almost as impressive as their wide array of dance moves (Feb. 1 to 3, Red Robinson Show Theatre; page 74). Expect sunglasses and studded jumpsuits when Wally Tiemer pays tribute to the King of Rock 'n' Roll in Elvis Gold (Feb. 17, Bell Performing Arts Centre; page 71). Bright, swirly dresses reveal some leg during the can-can at Salon Rouge, a fundraiser for the Vancouver International Dance Festival (Feb. 7, Uber Lounge at Steamworks; page 70).

LIFE IMITATES ART IMITATING LIFE

Who doesn't enjoy a little navel-gazing? Writers love holding a mirror up to their lives and professions. Fortunately for audiences, the reflection is often hilarious. In Moonlight and Magnolias, the screenwriter and director of Gone with the Wind are locked in an office. Fortified with only pea-

5 FABULOUS FESTIVALS

◆ According to Chinese tradition, red clothes repel bad luck. So don red duds and head to the Chinese New Year Festival to celebrate the Year of the Pig (Feb. 18; page 70).

◆ Oy vey! You'd have to be meshuga to skip all the fun at the Chutzpah! Festival. Jewish music, theatre, comedy and dance—only a putz would miss it (Feb. 17 to Mar. 3; page 70).

◆ Winter got you down? Lift your spirits at the very musical WinterSong Festival in West Van (Feb. 9 to 17; page 70).

◆ Aboriginal artists take centre stage in the Talking Stick Festival, covering the gamut from theatre and storytelling to music, dance and visual arts (Feb. 5 to 11; page 70).

◆ The annual PuSh Festival pushes the boundaries of live entertainment, so bring an open mind (to Feb. 4; page 70).

nuts and bananas, they can't come out until they solve the movie's many script problems (Feb. 24 to Mar. 17, Vancouver Playhouse; page 73). Mel Brooks's zany musical The Producers tells the story of a guaranteed flop—Springtime for Hitler—that throws its producers for a loop when it becomes an unexpected hit (Feb. 27 to Mar. 4,
