

Douglas Coupland
Golden Tree
Near Marine Drive SkyTrain Station
For the ultimate selfie, step inside a golden replica of Stanley Park's beloved Hollow Tree.
PHOTO BY KK LAW

unexpected art

Find works by your favourite artists tucked away in surprising spots around town BY SHERI RADFORD

Vancouver Mural Festival
East Vancouver
A vibrant annual fest keeps transforming drab East Van walls into colourful masterpieces.
PHOTO BY KK LAW

Andy Warhol
Flowers #67, #65, #66
Cactus Club Cafe, Richmond Centre
Each Cactus Club restaurant boasts an array of original pieces, including several by the superstar of pop art.

Jean-Michel Basquiat
Rinso, Ernok and Per Capita
Cactus Club Cafe, Richmond Centre
Though he died at a tragically young age, the abstract artist produced hundreds of works in his 27 years.

Bill Reid
The Spirit of Haida Gwaii, The Jade Canoe
Vancouver International Airport
YVR's extensive collection of First Nations art includes this piece by the acclaimed Haida carver and sculptor.

OSGEMEOS
Giants
 Granville Island
 The identical twin brothers from Brazil spray-painted a gigantic mural onto six silos at a working concrete factory.
 PHOTO ©SEARAGEN/ISTOCKPHOTO.COM

Douglas Coupland
Bow Tie
 Simons, Park Royal
 Art and fashion combine in an aptly situated sculpture by Vancouver's favourite hometown artist.

Walter Harris
'Ksan Mural
 RBC Royal Bank, Burrard St. at W. Georgia
 One of the largest First Nations art pieces in Canada, this mural depicts three Gitksan legends of the trickster Raven.
 PHOTO BY KK LAW

Rodney Graham
Psychomania
 Hawksworth Restaurant
 This custom installation by the Vancouver artist was inspired by a 1973 zombie movie of the same name. 1