

THE BAY X L.L.BEAN

Nobody does cosy quite like L.L.Bean and, if you've hesitated to take the plunge online, here's your chance to experience the iconic outdoor brand IRL, as several Hudson's Bay locations now feature L.L.Bean shop-in-shops. The Vancouver edition, on the ground floor of The Bay downtown, is as inviting as a crackling fire in the hearth. Warm and wonderful selections for every family member include puffy down jackets and vests, fleece hoodies, flannel button-ups, quilted quarter zips, anoraks, rugby pullovers, field coats, jeans and cargo pants. Sure to fill many stockings come Christmastime are toques, socks, water bottles, coffee mugs, totes and organizer bags. And, if you're curious to walk a mile in the Bean Boots, you can find out firsthand (firstfoot?) why the comfy rubber footwear has been so popular for more than 100 years. Frightful winter weather, you've met your match.
